1st October Sett Valley Quiz League - first half (Rems' questions)

1. Name any two of Alvin and the Chipmunks. Alvin, Simon and Theodore

---

2. At the end of 1960, what coin ceased to be legal tender in the UK? The farthing

---

3. In this summer's European Athletics Championships, Swiss athlete Audrey Werro beat Keeley Hodgkinson into second place in the final of which event? 800m

---

4. A Cavapoo is a cross between a poodle and which other dog breed? A Cavalier King Charles Spaniel

---

5. Bryher is the smallest populated island of which UK island group? The Isles of Scilly

---

6. What is the title of the Sam Fender and Olivia Dean song that has spent a total of 23 weeks at Number 1 in the UK charts this year? Rein Me In

---

7. The on-going operation by Ukraine's army to push back Russian forces in the Donetsk region shares its name with which Italian composer and violinist? Vivaldi

---

8. Which classicist and broadcaster is the Chair of this year's Booker Prize judging panel? Mary Beard

---

9. Which decade of the 17th century saw the death of Charles II and the birth of JS Bach? 1680s

---

10. Which football manager changed Crystal Palace's nickname from The Glaziers to The Eagles in the 1970s? Malcolm Allison

---

11. Which two elements are the only ones that are liquid at room temperature (25°C)? Mercury and Bromine

---

12. A DBS certificate is a document that contains details of one's criminal record history. What does DBS stand for? Disclosure and Barring Service

---

13. The Italian, Renzo Piano, has had what major influence on the skyline of London? He designed The Shard

---

14. Name either of the two countries which border Mexico to the south. Guatemala or Belize

---

15. Four countries have won the Eurovision song contest in consecutive years. Name any two. Spain (1968-69), Luxembourg (1972-73), Israel (1978-79), Ireland (1992-93-94)

16. What name links an 18th century Scottish sailor who became known as the Father of the American Navy and a member of the band Led Zeppelin? John Paul Jones

---

17. How many tournament grass courts are there at Wimbledon?
18 (Centre Court plus 17 others. There is no Court 13)

---

18. What is the densest planet in our solar system? Earth

---

19. In which English city will you find Derek Dooley Way? Sheffield

---

20. Who will shortly replace Richard Osman as the presenter of House of Games?
Michael Sheen

---

21. In September, a new species of cat, Leopardus tilcayo, was found in which South American country? Bolivia

---

22. In metres, how long is the Bayeux Tapestry? (+/-2) 70 (accept 68-72)

---

23. Who was the last UK monarch to be depicted on a threepenny bit?
Elizabeth II (the coin stopped being minted in 1967)

---

24. Jonathan Edwards' triple jump world record has stood since 1995. How long is it? (+/- 10cm) 18m 29cm (accept 18m 19cm-39cm)

---

25. The juice of which citrus fruit is used in a Paloma cocktail? Grapefruit

---

26. By what alter ego is the political comedian Jon Harvey better known?
Count Binface

---

27. The Pulitzer Prizes are administered by which New York university? Columbia

---

28. The Falkirk Triangle in Scotland is notorious for reports of what kind of phenomena? UFOs

---

29. In total, how many members of the Sugababes have there been? Six

---

30. In 1696, Isaac Newton became the warden of which financial institution?
The Royal Mint

Spares

- Last year, Rory McIlroy became the sixth man to win all four major golf tournaments. Who is the only other non-American to have achieved this? Gary Player
- In which 2026 film will you meet the character Lilypad and see the wedding of Forky and Karen Beverley? Toy Story 5
- What name is given to a bridge such as Tower Bridge which has a divided lifting roadway? Bascule Bridge

1st October Sett Valley Quiz League - second half (Rems' questions)

31. Southampton FC were expelled from the 2026 Championship Play Offs following the Spygate scandal. Which team replaced them in the final? Middlesbrough

---

32. Which poison, from a plant of the carrot family, did Socrates drink at his execution? Hemlock

---

33. Which sovereign state has a birth rate of zero? The Vatican

---

34. In 1997, Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice won an Oscar for the song, You Must Love Me. From which film musical? Evita

---

35. At the Clacton by-election in August, Laurence Fox lost his deposit for the fourth time out of the four elections he has contested. Which party did he represent? Reclaim

---

36. Published last week, Murder at the Grand Alpine Hotel by Lucy Foley is the first full-length novel for fifty years to feature which much-loved sleuth? Miss Marple

---

37. Since the Norman Conquest, five British monarchs have been buried abroad. Four in France and one in which other country? Germany (George I)

---

38. Which British athlete won the 1500m final in the European Championships this summer? Georgia Hunter Bell

---

39. Which is the least dense planet in our Solar System? Saturn

---

40. The illicit use of nitazenes contributed to a sharp rise in drug deaths in Scotland last year. What sort of drug are nitazenes? Opioid (accept also opiate)

---

41. Which two rhyming words are the former name of Tokyo and a small chocolate bar used as an informal measure of the cost of living? Edo and Freddo

---

42. How many of the Channel Islands are officially populated? Seven

---

43. Name the rapper controversially dropped from Ed Sheeran's tour of the United States. Macklemore

---

44. Which decade of the 20th century saw the birth of Pelé and the assassination of Leon Trotsky? 1940s

---

45. Which Swedish athlete holds the current men's pole vault world record? Armand Duplantis

---

46. A Boilermaker, a Depth Charger and a Herrengedeck are cocktails that contain a shot of spirits mixed with what type of alcoholic drink? Beer

47. Mercosur is a trade bloc made up of countries from which continent? South America

---

48. What familial characteristic was common to the Bee Gees, Bros and All Saints? They all contained twins

---

49. What acronym can refer to the engine in petrol cars, a particularly vicious enforcement service in the US and a German high speed train? ICE (internal combustion engine, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Intercity Express)

---

50. Last week, the village of Northop Hall in north Wales officially adopted Pentre Moch as its Welsh name. Moch is the Welsh word for what farm animal? Pig

---

51. On 1st October 1931, the George Washington bridge opened, connecting New York to which other state? New Jersey

---

52. Which England cricketer was dropped from the test squad in August after he was involved in an incident at a nightclub in Derby? Brydon Carse

---

53. A Boodle or Bossipoo is a cross between a poodle and which other dog breed? Boston Terrier

---

54. Last weekend, five men were arrested on terrorism charges near RAF Fairford in which county? Gloucestershire

---

55. Published last month, The Great Dictator by Matthew Sweet is a biography of which redoubtable British author, the third best-selling fiction author of all time? Barbara Cartland

---

56. Adelaide Street West on the Golden Mile in Blackpool has been renamed in honour of which north west comedian, entertainer and singer who died in 2018? Ken Dodd

---

57. Who presents the baffling new ITV game show, The Box? Gary Lineker

---

58. Mary I of England (aka Bloody Mary) was crowned at Westminster Abbey on 1st October 1553. Who was her mother? Catherine of Aragon

---

59. Which women's Rugby Union team recently drew with England, ending the Red Roses' run of 39 wins? Canada

---

60. The International Union of Pure Applied Chemistry is responsible for keeping what classification up-to-date? The Periodic Table

Spares

- What was the Roman name for Ireland, meaning the land of winter? Hibernia
- Who is the current editor of The Spectator? Michael Gove
- On television in the 1970s, how were Jill Munroe, Kelly Garrett and Sabrina Duncan collectively known? Charlie's Angels